Description

The University of South Wales (USW) is one of Britain's most exciting and ambitious universities. Innovative, thriving and sustainable, we work to build better futures for our students, our communities and our partners economically, socially and culturally.

USW wishes to appoint a partner to support the provision of new cinema seating and associated staging works by a specialist contractor. This is not for the provision of the seating but the associated building works.

Works to include removal of existing seating, carpets, handrails before specialist seating installers realign the seating staging. Supply and fit new carpets, raised flooring, balustrading and acoustic slated wall coverings. Electrical works include new low level lighting connected to existing switching system and connection of power sockets supplied by the seating contractor to the power system. Mechanical works including alteration the ventilation system.
