The aims and objectives include:

Provide a safe, welcoming, and sustainable environment to help service users sustain their occupation and access support towards independent living.

Offer a flexible and responsive approach, adapting security levels to match site and resident needs, including emergency interventions.

Scale provision up or down as required, in coordination with site management and commissioners.

Maintain an unobtrusive presence, ensuring residents can live without unnecessary interference.

Add social value by reducing anti-social behaviour, complaints, and demand on emergency services.

Key Responsibilities include:

Site Security & Access Control - mobile and static patrolling, securing premises, and monitoring entry points.

Incident Response & Risk Management - Handling security incidents and safeguarding residents.

CCTV & Surveillance - Monitoring and responding to security threats.

Supportive Engagement - Providing a visible presence to reassure residents and the local community.

Naloxone Administration - Delivering life-saving intervention in opioid overdose situations.
