II.1.4) Short description

The purpose of this RFI event is to explore the Digital Intelligence and Investigation Support Market for current and future product options to support HMRC in delivering key objectives. This event will enable organisations to provide relevant information, through the provided questionnaire, regarding any potential solution they may offer, estimated costs, and what contractual routes their solution can be accessed through.

The primary purpose of this exercise is, therefore, to gain a deeper understanding of the market, and what potential solutions are available. HMRC currently have a high-level requirement, which is included within this RFI, but we would look to develop this requirement accordingly if there are innovative solutions available.

The RFI documentation, which will provide further details of this service, can be requested by emailing irfan.oomer@hmrc.gov.uk and kirstie.colder@hmrc.gov.uk.
