Section VI. Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information

Interested persons should register for the market engagement exercise via <https://esourcing.uclan.ac.uk/> to register as a supplier and express your interest in prj_2096 International Recruitment and Partnerships Development and Support – New Delhi and complete the questionnaire. This will facilitate your involvement for the Pre-Market Engagement Day on 10th January 2022. Please ensure that you complete your registration no later than 6 January 2022. The market engagement day is an entirely virtual event. Please note that, when registering, you will be required to confirm whether you have an interest in bidding to provide this service, we may decline to register (or otherwise deny access to) persons that do not have a direct interest of this nature, in order to optimise the value and efficiency of the exercise. Interested persons should note that invitations to (and information on) subsequent events or activities (such as technical meetings and questionnaires) will be provided to those persons who have registered by following the instructions above. No further notice of those subsequent events will be given to the wider market. You are therefore encouraged to register as soon as possible, even where you may be unable to attend the Pre-Market Engagement Day or are unable to register until after that day. This form of notice and means of publication (a "prior information notice" on the Find a Tender service) has been used to ensure the widest potential advertising of the market engagement opportunity. The University is required to advertise competitions on its website. The University reserves the right not to commence any competitive procurement process, either within the timescales referred to in this notice or at all. Where the University does commence a competitive procurement process, it reserves the right to advertise (or otherwise give notice of) that process in whatever way it deems fit at the time. This notice is not a formal request for expressions of interest. Participation or nonparticipation in this exercise will not confer any advantage or disadvantage on any person in respect of any future procurement activity. However, the results of the market engagement exercise (including any technical meetings and written questionnaire responses) may be used to shape and refine the proposition before any formal competitive procurement process commences. The University is not obliged to respond to any correspondence on this notice or any matter related to the market engagement exercise. Direct or indirect canvassing of the University (or any person connected with it) by any person concerning this market engagement exercise, or any attempt to procure information outside of the defined process is discouraged and may (in certain circumstances) require the disqualification of the relevant person(s) from participation in any future competitive procurement process.

Interested persons should note that: any costs of participation in the market engagement exercise will be borne by the participant; and all information provided by the University during the market engagement exercise is at an early stage of development and is not to be relied on by any person and the University, to the extent permitted by law, shall have no liability for any losses incurred by any person as a result such reliance.
