Inclusion NHS deliver the Adult and Young People's Community Drug and Alcohol Services for the County of Hampshire and have worked together in partnership with Parent Support link to deliver these services since 2015. This new contract provides us with an opportunity to further develop and refine the services for family and carers, to increase the inclusivity and cooperative nature of treatment services and to combine with Catch 22, Recovery Workers, Children of Substance Misusing Parents Workers and Family Recovery Workers and to maximise the support for whole families. While supporting family and carers independently of their loved ones is our first priority, the combination of teams and partners in the Hampshire contract provide an excellent opportunity to work in concert with treatment services to assist the person with drug and alcohol problems.

The trusts intention is to award this contract to Parent Support Link through Direct Award process C and the approximate lifetime value of the contract is £1,192,100.00 inc extension options and the dates between which the services are intended to be provided are 1st July 2025 - 31st March 2032 inc all extension options
