Section IV. Procedure

IV.1) Description

IV.1.1) Type of procedure

Award of a contract without prior publication of a call for competition in the cases listed below

- The procurement falls outside the scope of application of the regulations

Explanation:

This award avoids costs associated with the introduction of a new and non-configured system and gives the Council the ability to deliver customisations within timescale so as to avoid business interruption to a critical business system with alignment with the ongoing business change programme.

Section 32.(2) of the PCR 2015 provides that;

"The negotiated procedure without prior publication may be used for public works contracts, public supply contracts and public service contracts in any of the following cases: - b) where the works, supplies or services can be supplied only by a particular economic operator for any of the following reasons: -

- (i) the aim of the procurement is the creation or acquisition of a unique work of art or artistic performance,
- (ii) competition is absent for technical reasons,
- (iii) the protection of exclusive rights, including intellectual property rights, but only, in the case of paragraphs (ii) and (iii), where no reasonable alternative or substitute exists and the absence of competition is not the result of an artificial narrowing down of the parameters of the procurement;
