Mid Sussex District Council has released this PIN for the dual purpose of giving advance notice to suppliers of the future intended tender and to approach the open market for assistance with building the Council's Tender Specification(s). The Council has prepared a Supplier Questionnaire to give suppliers the opportunity to help clarify several areas in the provision of falls prevention exercise services and to enquire on any new / best market practices that the Council should be aware of to ensure our Tender Specification allows the appointed Supplier(s) to provide a best value service. The Council is holding a Virtual Supplier Engagement Event taking place between 2pm and 4pm on Wednesday 7th December 2022, providing an opportunity for suppliers who complete the Supplier Questionnaire to explain their responses in an open discussion. If you want to provide the Council with feedback on current, new and best practice recommendations in the provision of falls prevention exercise services, please email procurement@horsham.gov.uk requesting a copy of the Supplier Questionnaire and return a completed version by email to the same address. Upon receipt of your completed Supplier Questionnaire, we will email back with details of the Supplier Engagement Event taking place on Wednesday 7th December. There is no deadline to send the Council your completed Supplier Questionnaire BUT if you want to participate in the Supplier Engagement Event you must email your completed Supplier Questionnaire to us by no later than 12:00 Monday 5th December 2022. Neither failing to respond to this questionnaire will mean exclusion from any potential tendering opportunity going forward nor can the Council guarantee any inclusion in any potential tendering opportunity if you do respond to this Questionnaire.
