II.1.4) Short description

Arden and GEM Commissioning Support Unit (AGEM) is seeking to let a Framework for the provision of Integrated Resource Management Planning Technology Partners. The systems should be agile and have the flexibility to respond to evolving technology and operational requirements as these emerge.

AGEM has developed a new service offering for customers which enables customers to join as members with an annual fee which is scaled according to the requirements of the customer and the size of the organisation. AGEM now requires system partner(s) to enable this vision.

Our vision is to provide both a strategic planning tool to enable population level integrated planning and a range of connected operational planning tools to support effective resource management. The tools created will enable decision makers at different levels across the health and care system to understand the current performance, their target operating model - and performance requirements, together with the evidence base on best practice.

The Framework term will be 36 months, with a total framework value of £15.855m over the 36 months. A maximum of 3 bidders will be awarded a place on the framework.

This procurement is being carried out by NHS South, Central and West Commissioning Support Unit (SCW) on behalf of AGEM.
