Overall Programme Objective:

Communities are more resilient to conflict, trust and accountability between state and society is strengthened. Local actors are supported to address and mitigate drivers of conflict, creating the conditions for improved governance and longer-term development.

Indicative results:

-Sustainable and inclusive dialogue structures are created/supported at community-level to mediate conflicts and support inclusive local governance.

-Local security and justice governance is improved and formal and informal conflict resolution mechanisms are strengthened.

-Land conflict is reduced, access to land increased and mechanisms for local natural resource management are strengthened.

-At risk populations (especially women and youth) have access to sustainable socio-economic reintegration opportunities.

II.2.14) Additional information

Please note this is not a call to competition and does not constitute the commencement of the procurement process. The use of PQQ functionality for the purpose of organising EME event is due to the limitation of the system.
