Scope

Description

Procure Plus are a value focused, not for profit company that specialises in the procurement of goods and services related to both the new build, repair, and maintenance of social housing. Procure Plus's predominant customer is social housing organisations who are responsible for residential properties.

In the scope of this exercise, Procure Plus would like to engage with installers of fire stopping measures which include; firestop pillows, pipe wraps and collars, firestop boards and similar materials.

We do not wish to engage with installers of fire doors at this time.

Procure Plus would like to engage with installers of fire stopping materials to inform the development of an output specification. More specifically, Procure Plus would like to discuss with installers how they determine which materials are most suitable for the works being carried out based on their characteristics and to understand product development in this area.

Engagement process description

Installers who would like to participate in this exercise will be required to complete a short introductory questionnaire that summarises their organisation before being invited to attend a short meeting. To manage the resource of both the installers who express an interest in this exercise and the time of the team at Procure Plus, Procure Plus reserves the right to decline to engage with organisations who do not have the required experience of installing the products described within this notice. It is expected that the engagement meetings will take place from week commencing 23rd June 2025 although this timetable may be subject to change.

Procure Plus provides no guarantee that a procurement will be carried out pursuant to this exercise or that it will be carried out within a given period of time. Installers who engage with Procure Plus should do so on the understanding that information provided is to support and develop an understanding of the market only. It does not represent information for evaluation purposes, and it will not constitute a tender. Information provided by the installers in this exercise will be treated confidentially.

Installers who are interested in engaging with Procure Plus pursuant to this notice should register and complete the questionnaire by following the link
