Description

This framework covers a broad range of construction-related services for public buildings across multiple value bands.

It includes new build projects delivered using traditional methods or modern framed/panelised systems (excluding modular buildings), refurbishment and restoration of existing and listed public buildings, and associated infrastructure works such as highways, sewers, and drainage.

It also encompasses demolition and recovery services to prepare sites for development, facilities management covering building fabric and technical systems, and professional services including project management and cost control. The framework is structured across multiple lots based on project type and value, ranging from under £750k to over £25 million.
