Description

Re-harvested Christmas Trees are commissioned by Lisburn and Castlereagh City Council to supply Community Christmas trees for the urban settlements throughout the Council area. As part of our civic contribution to society Community Christmas trees have been a long-standing part of the Christmas programme within our Parks and Amenities programme.

This tender is to procure the Christmas trees for approximately 23 communities with the Council area. These are installed during November in time for the Community switch-on events within these areas throughout the Council's city, towns, and villages.

The Christmas have proven to be popular, and a high standard of quality is always expected.
