HAC6034 0-5 Specialist Community Public Health Nursing

Description

The London Borough of Tower Hamlets has a responsibility for commissioning the statutory 0-5 Specialist Community Public Health Nursing services transferred from NHS England to the Council on 1st October 2015. These services are comprised of the Health Visiting service and the Family Nurse Partnership service, which both deliver the Healthy Child Programme to families with children, starting in pregnancy until the child is 5 years old. The Healthy Child Programme provides regular health and development checks for children throughout their first few years of life and aims to impact positively on health and development for all children under 5 in Tower Hamlets.

This opportunity will be divided into 2 Lots. Lot 1 will be the Health Visiting and Family Nurse Partnership and Lot 2 will be Evaluation of Community Health Outcomes (ECHO).
