II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Commercial Procurement Services, hosted by the Countess of Chester Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, is considering the letting of a National Framework Agreement to cover Crisis Communications Support for UK public sector organisations. The potential framework agreement aims to provide a consultancy support service to organisations facing, or potentially facing, situations that may involve reputational risk.

Suppliers would be required to deliver services to public sector organisations across the whole of the UK.

Suppliers would need to possess the ability to plan, train, advise and deliver services to public sector contracting authorities on the below areas:

- Strategic communications expertise
- Reputation management

- Risk identification and mitigation
- Media engagement support and media training
- Stakeholder/Internal relations expertise
- Public affairs and public relations expertise

Suppliers would need to be able to respond quickly to customers in times of sudden crisis, and/or provide long term support to help mitigate potential risks.

Suppliers would work closely with customers to determine the most suitable approach to deliver an agreed package of support.

Suppliers appointed to the framework must meet and maintain the following minimum standards:

- Employers (Compulsary) Liability Insurance with a minimum cover of £5m
- Public (and Products if applicable) Liability Insurance with a minimum cover of £5m
- Professional Indemnity Insurance with a minimum cover of £5m
