II.2.11) Information about options

Options: Yes

Description of options

The Trustees reserves the right, on giving reasonable written notice from time to time, to require changes to the Services (whether by way of the removal of Services, the addition of new Services, or increasing or decreasing the Services or specifying the order in which the Services are to be performed or the locations where the Services are to be provided). The Trustees shall not require any such change other than where it is permitted by Regulation 72 of the Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015.

In accordance with Regulation 72(1)(a) of the Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015, Trustees reserves the right to make changes to the volume, scope or location of the Services to be supplied under the Framework following a review of the Services by Trustees, particularly with regard to:

- Non-core activities: the Trustees will provide a set of requirements and request a price as well as delivery methodology. If accepted, these services will be charged in addition to the supplier's fixed fees.
- Changes in the pensions regulations require additional services or removal of services.
- The supplier is unsuccessful at the re-tender – the admin element of the contract will have to carry on for up to 6 months, allowing the incoming supplier to accommodate the handover
