II.1.4) Short description

The Department for Transport (DfT) is seeking a Transport Economics Training provider to provide training, specifically pertaining to the key principles of transport economics and how those principles are practically applied.

The Department for Transport is seeking a supplier who will deliver learning interventions covering two core topic areas:

- Transport Investment Appraisal (TIA): cost-benefit analysis and the development of business cases, consistent with HMT Green Book guidance and the DfT's Transport Analysis Guidance (TAG).
- Transport Infrastructure and Economic Performance (TIEP): how we robustly assess the impact of transport interventions on economic performance, such as productivity, investment, and employment.

This contract will be let on a 2+1 year term.

Prospective bidders will be required to register via DfT's e-procurement portal to access the ITT pack and formally submit a tender.

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Specific Training Services - Transport Economics.

Bidders are expected to have in-depth, demonstrable experience delivering Transport Investment Appraisal courses and Transport Infrastructure and Economic Performance courses.

The suppliers should deliver learning interventions so that delegates:

- are confident that they understand the core principles of transport appraisal and the links between transport infrastructure and economic performance.
- can explain these core principles in a clear and accessible way to non-specialists.
- are highly effective in designing, undertaking and delivering high-quality transport appraisals; and
- are highly proficient in reviewing and critically challenging appraisals produced by others.

The courses are expected to be delivered both face-to-face (in person) and virtually. The full tender pack is accessible via DfT's e-sourcing platform. Prospective bidders are required to register via DfT's e-procurement portal to access the ITT pack and submit a formal bid.
