G?yr Community Land Trust is seeking to appoint a project manager to work alongside our members and professional design team throughout the planning, design and construction phases of a development of 14 innovative, zero-carbon community-owned homes in Swansea, South Wales, using a community self-build approach.

The proposed design is for a cohousing development of 14 homes, a common house and outbuildings including an agricultural barn, workshop, polytunnel, cycle store and plant room. The design also includes associated vehicle, cycle, and pedestrian access; landscaping works include SuDS features; and renewable energy provision via roof-mounted PV.

It will be a community self-build, using tried and tested accessible design and build methods, working alongside industry professionals and contractors.

The successful project manager will be responsible for overseeing the development process from the submission of the planning application, creating and managing contracts with contractors and subcontractors, through to having strategic management of the on-site construction of the 14 homes and the necessary infrastructure. The project manager will be required to be the main point of contact for both the membership of GCLT through the steering group, for the design team and for subcontractors in the build phase.

The project manager will deliver their services and duties in two phases:

Pre-contract / pre-construction (anticipated Feb 24-Feb 25)

Post-contract / Construction (anticipated Feb 25 - 27)

The full schedule of services and duties required are outlined in Appendix One titled 'RICS Project Manager Schedule of Duties – GCLT' with the Project Manager Brief document uploaded as Additional Information to this notice.
