Cramlington Learning Village are a school built on respect and committed to creating an environment where individual strengths are nurtured and where every student can thrive and grow. We want our students to develop the skills and knowledge needed to serve our community and have an impact on wider society.

Cramlington Learning Village is divided into three distinct areas. The Junior Learning Village (JLV) for years 7 and 8, the Senior Learning Village (SLV) for years 9 to 11 and the Advanced Learning Village (ALV) for years 12 and 13.

Our academy is well supported by expert staff, exciting learning and a huge range of extracurricular opportunities help our students become resilient learners, expert readers, knowledge explorers and responsible citizens who aim high and can shape the future

The Trust is seeking to enter an overall four-year contract with a two-year initial period and option to extend for 2 x 12-month periods (subject to satisfactory performance), with a single supplier who will demonstrate technical competency and best value for money and to provide all requirements in relation to the Trust Cleaning Service needs.

The primary objective for the Trust is to establish an effective, efficient program of regular and periodical deep cleaning, which ensures the safety, hygiene and cleanliness of the Trust buildings. In addition, the Trust is looking to adopt a partnership approach with the successful supplier to drive continuous improvement throughout the life of the contract.
