The Contracting Authority does not intend to include a sub-contract clause as part of community benefits (as per Section 25 of the Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014) in this contract for the following reason:

Not suitable for this service.

The Contracting Authority does not intend to include any community benefit requirements in this contract for the following reason:

These organisations are Third Sector and many are struggling financially to maintain their organisation, therefore it could be deemed counteractive to request Community Benefits, when their services are generally considered a community asset in their own right.
