II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The first service is for Gloucestershire's Independent Sexual Violence Adviser (ISVA) service commissioned by the OPCC. The service currently employs a range of staff including, ISVA's CHISVA's and Specialist Support workers. The ISVA service is open to all victims of sexual violence and provides practical and emotional support for anyone currently accessing, or considering reporting an incident to, the criminal justice system. The current contract is due to cease on the 31st July 2025. The second service is the re-tender of Sexual Assault and Abuse Therapeutic Services for adults and children aged 8 and under, living in Gloucestershire. The new service commissioned by Gloucestershire Integrated Care Board will offer a range of support for all adults, children 8 years and under including parents and carers, regardless of when any assault or abuse took place. The current contracts are due to cease on the 31st July 2025. The market engagement for both services will be run as one event, as part of a collaboration between Gloucestershire OPCC and NHS ICB. However, each Authority will run their own tender process separately for their respective service.
