II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The London Violence Reduction Unit is seeking a consortium of organisations to provide a Leadership and Development Programme for youth practitioners working on the frontline with young people affected by violence in London.

The programme will be designed to combine a mixture of practical and specialist training in areas most relevant to frontline professionals working with young people who are vulnerable to being exposed to violence, with business management skills and individualised coaching so participants have the one-to-one leadership support for their professional development.

The invitation to tender will be issued in early December 2023.

We will be holding an information session for prospective bidders on Wednesday 13th December from 10am-11am.

Please reply to VRUCommissioning@london.gov.uk by midday on Tuesday 12th December to sign up the information session. Please include: "VRU Youth Practitioner Leadership & Development Programme 2 Information Session" in the title of the email.

If you cannot attend the session but would like to be sent the bidding opportunity when it is released, please state this in your email.
