II.1.4) Short description

The Workers' Education Association (WEA) is a leading education charity with a legacy that stretches back over 120 years. The organisation empower adults by bringing great teaching to local communities across England and Scotland - reaching tens of thousands of learners each year - and is committed to removing any barriers so that individuals can improve their own life chances and have a positive impact on their communities and society. The WEA differentiates itself from other further education institutions by reaching into communities where learners live and work, to deliver learning in surroundings where they are familiar and comfortable. The WEA is seeking construction partner(s) to deliver building projects works and refurbishment on properties within the organisation's existing estate to deliver a high-quality, inclusive and sustainable education environment. The opportunity is divided into three Lots covering the requirements in key locations in England: Bristol, Nottingham
