National Highways is conducting early market engagement on a new strategy for delivering transformation and change services in its business for up to 5 years from late 2023 with an initial estimated value of £100 million. A supplier engagement day will be held in London in late January 2023 to brief the market on the initial strategy and obtain feedback to develop the procurement route. Potential suppliers are asked to register their attendance by contacting the above email address and quoting "pro_15433 - Transformation and Change engagement event" in the subject line. Venue details will be confirmed once supplier numbers are identified. Suppliers are asked to register their interest by 22 December 2022 to be guaranteed a place at the event. Suppliers who register late will be offered spaces subject to venue capacity.
