II.1.4) Short description

The project is designed to raise awareness of cervical screening and increase screening uptake across SNEE with focus on health inequalities and underserved populations. The Very Important Invitation project also aims to contribute to reducing health inequalities as well as reducing cancer related deaths. The Very Important invitation project is a bespoke health inequalities educator project, being delivered by Suffolk GP Federation. The project has been funded by Cancer SDF funding for 4 years in Suffolk and expanded to NEE in 2024. The project is designed to raise awareness of cervical screening and increase screening uptake, adding value within primary care, the community and supporting the NHS long term plan. The project delivers the following:

- ? GP Education & Health Inequalities support- Training and resources to clinical/non clinical staff
- ? Identification of low uptake groups and barriers to attendance
- ? Bespoke support to practices following data analysis
- ? One to one support / Chaperoning / Pop up clinics/Non responder clinics
- ? Promoting health education initiatives via press release, radio, media campaigns, social media platforms and websites.
- ? Community and commercial events
- ? Evening and weekend screening appointments via the Suffolk GP+ Service.
- ? LD and sexual trauma survivor support packs
- ? Schools, Colleges and Universities education
- ? Supply of online toolkit for ongoing resources.

The project aims to specifically support the following patient cohorts to access cervical screening:

- Those living through deprivation/homelessness
- The LGBTQIA+ community
- People of a multifaith and/or multicultural background
- People from Black, Asian and other ethnic minority backgrounds
- People with Learning Disabilities
- People with serious mental health issues
- People aged 25-29

- People aged 50-64
- Those who have never been screened
- Survivors of sexual trauma
- Gypsy, Roma and Travelling community
- Those who have experience Birth Trauma
- Perimenopausal/menopausal people

The contract is a 12-month contract commencing on 1st April 2025 and ending on 31st March 2026 with the option to extend for a further 12 months, with a 3 month notice period. Future funding for this project will go via the cancer programme governance route which includes the monthly cancer operational group and the bi-monthly cancer delivery committee chaired by the cancer SRO.
