II.1.4) Short description

We are currently redeveloping our exhibitions, galleries and displays across the Royal Observatory Greenwich, London as part of a major capital project, 'First Light'. This includes a number of distinctive yet connected exhibition environments which we have grouped together to form discrete narrative workstreams. We are currently seeking design teams to work with us on two major exhibition groupings: 'Our Place in the Universe' (this procurement) and 'Our Place on Earth' (a separate procurement).

For 'Our Place in the Universe' we are looking for a Lead Exhibition Designer to work with us to create new displays that ignite people's curiosity in contemporary astronomy and science, fulfilling the ROG's mission to be the national centre for the public understanding of astronomy.

The scope of services will include full exhibition design services, with 3D, 2D and lighting design as core requirements.
