Scope

Description

Cellebrite provide Mobile Device data acquisition tools used in Digital Forensic Investigations by UK Law enforcement agencies and Police Forces. They have proprietary tools that are unavailable via any other provider both nationally and internationally and are covered by non-disclosure arrangements. The procurement of the SaaS is to renew the existing licences in place within the City of London Police and to enable the acquisition of critical digital evidence in investigations.

Cellebrite is the sole supplier who can perform these services. This is a contract renewal for software.
