Description

This opportunity is for Delivery of a Converged Media Production Stage Solution for Research and Development usage by the United Kingdom (UK) Creative Sectors (film, games, live, and immersive) on behalf of the CoSTAR network, as part of a new National Laboratory for Research and Development (R&D) for creative technologies to ensure the UK's screen and performance industries have the innovation infrastructure needed to compete globally. This procurement relates specifically to the delivery of the Converged Screen Technology and Realtime Production Stage itself, within the Main Studio of the National Lab which will be based at Pinewood Studios, Iver Heath, SL0 0NH. As seamless integration between multiple technologies forms a key part of the specification, the requirement has not been divided into lots. Please refer to the ITT documentation for
