II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Welsh Government on behalf of the Welsh Ministers (hereafter referred to as the Client) requires the supply of branded promotional items and we are looking to appoint experienced and professional promotional products companies to meet these requirements. The 4-year framework has an estimated expenditure of up to GBP 800,000 (exc. VAT) and 3 places will be awarded to the top 3 ranked suppliers.

Welsh Government organise, co-ordinate and attend events, exhibitions and conferences every year. For example, the Urdd and National Eisteddfod, Royal Welsh Show, Educational Conferences. Promotional items are often used alongside these events or as part of a campaign to reinforce brand identity or to raise awareness of a particular policy or scheme.

The Client requires a wide range of branded promotional items to be available, from pens, bags, lanyards, mugs etc., to high quality branded glassware, trophies etc., including eco-friendly options. This list is not exhaustive, and the successful bidders will be required to source a variety of products and access the latest innovative, sustainable products over the duration of the framework. We require details on request of any items that can be made from recycled materials, in line with the Client's binding legal duty to pursue sustainable development in all it does (this is built into its constitution through section 121 of the Government of Wales Act).

The Client does not guarantee any level of work, or bind itself to demand any quantities under this contract.
