Description

Bradford Council are looking to commission suicide prevention training for all ages aimed at frontline staff that can be delivered within a half day. We are also looking to commission self-harm training for people that work with children and young people can be delivered within a half day. We are conducting market research and looking for quotes to see what is available in the market. We are open to innovation and modification to existing products to ensure our requirements are met. We would like to understand how long it would take to mobilise this training and the cost associated with this modification and price per session.
