Text

NHS England (Midlands) is undertaking a market engagement exercise to gauge market interest in the provision of the evaluation of the Integrated Care (Community) Vanguard Programme for Children and Young People (CYP) across the West Midlands Area. The expectation is for a provider to undertake an evaluation of the current pilot models for service delivery. Firstly, the evaluation of the Service and stakeholder feedback and secondly, the experience of the Service Users and others who have used the service or are currently using the service. The engagement exercise consists of gauging interest and whether the evaluations and user experience should be 1 element or 2 separate elements. The questionnaire is available through the following link <https://health-family.force.com/s/Welcome> - Ref C194366 -NHS England - CYP Vanguard Evaluation Market Engagement - please respond to the online questionnaire by 12noon on 10th October, 2023
