Description

Georgian Day is a key event in Armagh City's event calendar, attracting approximately 30,000 visitors into the city. The event also marks the start of Christmas in Armagh and is the day on which the Christmas Lights are switched on. Since 2011, the finale of Georgian Day has been a large-scale light projection show. This extremely high-quality event in Market Square has proven extremely popular with crowds and the council wishes to continue to provide this exciting event to visitors and residents of the district. Armagh City Banbridge and Craigavon Borough Council is seeking proposals from leading creative agencies for the development and delivery of a high quality, spectacular, family orientated, projection show to include the live arrival of Santa.
