Scope

Description

The provider is demonstrating significant impact in relation to Patient outcomes. They are a trusted community resource whom have forged collaborative working practices with other providers. Their work has recently been highly commended by the HSJ in terms of the positive outcomes achieved for people and their families.

The Martin Gallier project works collaboratively with Wirral Liaison Psychiatry service, Home Treatment Team Wirral and the crisis line to support people within the Wirral locality who present to services in suicidal crisis. They deliver 1-1 interventions and group interventions as clinically indicated. The contract for this service in the Wirral expires on the 31 March 2024. It is proposed that this is extended for one year from that date and that the service is expanded to include the entire CWP footprint for that period which will include West Cheshire and Central and East Cheshire.
