NHS Lanarkshire's Health Improvement department wish to commission an organisation to develop and deliver:

Work across the NHS Lanarkshire area which challenges mental health stigma and discrimination.

This work will:

- a) empower people with lived experience of mental health issues to share their personal stories and experiences to instil hope in others and encourage their participation in their local communities.
- b) increase awareness and understanding of the realities of mental health stigma and discrimination across the four key areas (Health & Social Care, Education & Young People, Communities & Workplace) to dispel myths and shine a light on the real impact on the lives of individuals. This will be underpinned by the values and ethos of 'Rights for Life' together with the lived experience.
- c) work directly with identified target groups to educate and support their understanding of mental health problems and explore the potential and uniqueness of recovery.
- d) continue to work in partnership with See Me and Lanarkshire Recovery Network partners to draw on wider expertise whilst sharing skills, knowledge, learning and good practice.
- e) build partnerships in order to influence inclusion of stigma and discrimination in strategies and plans including procurement and commissioning, prevention plans, improvement plans, local outcome agreement plans.
