II.1.4) Short description

Sutton Housing Society has secured full planning permission for the erection of a fourth storey extension to the front accommodation block (fronting Brighton Road) at the above and the erection of a third and fourth floor to the rear block, to provide an additional 19 self-contained residential units for the elderly, together with alterations to existing elevations. Erection of a single storey external storage shed, canopy walkway, provision of additional parking bays, erection of refuse and a mobility scooter store, formation of a new lift shaft and associated landscaping.

Trickett House is one of five projects that Sutton Housing Society (SHS) has secured full planning permission for (totalling 71 new homes). The planning applications were all submitted on the same day, with a view to creating a 'development pipeline' with the intention that all five projects will run consecutively, the lessons learned from one being fed into the next project. Sutton Housing Society is an investment partner with the GLA (Greater London Authority) and has funding in place.

We invite you to submit your lump sum, firm priced tender to execute the Main Contract works.
