II.1.4) Short description

The British Museum plans to embark in Spring 2024 on a procurement exercise that will lead to the appointment of a Design Team for the re-development of its Western Range as part of the Museum's Masterplan. The procurement approach will be in the form of a Restricted Procedure under the Public Contracts Regulations 2015. The evaluation methodology for the appointment of the Design Team has been developed, and approved by the Museum's Masterplan Committee.

We now seek to appoint a Procurement Consultant to manage the delivery of the Design Team appointment in accordance with the agreed methodology whose main responsibilities will be:

- Administration of e-sourcing portal including all communications with participants.
- Facilitation of in-person events
- Management of all evaluation stages by chairing and providing secretariat services to panels.

For the avoidance of doubt the Procurement Consultant will not score any elements of the Design Team selection themselves.

- Manage evaluation of project specific elements of Stage 1 responses by Client team. Chair and provide all necessary secretariat services to shortlisting panel for evaluation and moderation sessions as required to arrive at final Stage 1 scores and establish shortlist in accordance with pre-determined published process.
- Prepare summary report on outcome of Stage 1 for review by Client stakeholders.
- Draft Stage 1 notification letters for review by Client team, legal advisors and administer distribution and relevant communications.

Stage 2 and Post-Competition

- Apply any necessary amendments to ITT document pack prior to issue to shortlisted tenderers.
- Publish ITT packs via Client's portal.
- Manage all communications with tenderers as in Stage 1
- Arrange and facilitate any events, such as charettes, presentations or interviews that may be required.
- Chair supporting technical panels and provide all required secretariat services.
- Take receipt of Client's Quantity Surveyor's appraisal of fee proformas ITT entries, and alongside technical panel reviews, collate into a single document for the jury panel.
- Moderate and provide all required secretariat services for jury panel meetings (noting the consultant will not have a decision-making role on the panel)
- Develop and produce tender reports providing recommendations for appointment to relevant Client stakeholders.
- Draft standstill letters and manage interaction with Client legal advisors, administer distribution of these letters and, if required, subsequent relevant communications.
- Support execution of contract with successful Design Team.
- Support Client communication team as required with announcements relating to the appointment of the Design Team.
