There were no declared conflicts of interest.

Award decision-makers:

Lisa Burn - Consultant, Public Health. Bernie Brown, Public Health Manager Harriet Connolly, Public Health Support Officer

Key Criteria used to make the decision:

QUESTION? Asked ourselves - what do we want from our service? individually, using online whiteboard noted all of the things that we wanted to see in the service and what is important to us. GROUPING OF IDEAS: through colour coding, we grouped together the sticky notes of a similar theme, using loose headings e.g. access and choice, workforce development, engagement and collaboration etc.

KEY CRITERIA: using the headings of each key criteria, we discussed where each grouping/statement fit best.

WEIGHTING: discussed which criteria was the most/least important. Increased weighting for the area we felt was the most important overall, decreased the weighting for the least. The remaining weighting was then shared equally between the other 3 areas
