II.1.4) Short description

Dear Providers,

Coventry City Council is seeking a provider to deliver Supervised Contact for our children and families within Coventry. The provider will need to deliver supervised contact for those families currently working with the Local Authority in a safe environment to enable family time to take place.

What are we looking for?

- 1200-1500 hours per month of supervised contact
- To be delivered within 1 building or a range of buildings that are in and around Coventry that can be easily accessed by families to attend

The provider would need to be able to deliver the service from August 2025.

If you feel you could deliver the service above, please respond expressing your interest outlining the following:

- Resources you have to deliver the service
- Costings for the delivery of the service
- Confirmation of buildings or proposed plan to facilitate the service

Contact: Priya Dady and Stephanie Verge

Email: childrenscommissioning@coventry.gov.uk

Please respond by: 10th December 2024
