II.1.4) Short description

This notice describes the award of contract for the Environmental Enforcement Service to Kingdom Services Group Ltd (Kingdom) for a period of three years followed by the option of one extension of two years in length for an estimated total revenue value of £5,000,000. The service has been tendered using a revenue sharing model which will generate income for the Council and work on a cost neutral basis.

Kingdom's tender described a well-trained and motivated service that will tackle enforcement in a community informed way with a diverse, Camden recruited, workforce to match Camden's diverse communities. Their tender described a service with procedures to ensure continual improvement and a well-equipped service that will promote quality e.g. all staff will wear body cameras to record their interactions with the public. The tenderer also demonstrated their commitment to Social Value by promising to deliver three apprenticeships over the lifetime of the contract.
