Description

The University of Bath is undertaking various construction and major refurbishment programmes that necessitate the expertise of specialist consultants capable of providing support throughout each project's RIBA stages. We wish to engage with the market to ensure those capable are considered. Please register your interest.

We are also considering setting a framework for PM, QS, M&E, and possibly other professions. We also have below-threshold projects that have immediate needs. We will choose the best tender route to meet the project's requirements.
