The GLA and its partners are planning to baseline and project the growth of London's green economy by updating the existing 16-year dataset with new data for 2023/24, 2024/25, and 2025/26. The GLA and its partners are looking to develop a new approach to provide an insight into the make-up of London's green economy. This work will build on previous analyses, including the kMatrix London Low Carbon and Environmental Goods and Services (LCEGS) analysis and the WPI Economics Green Jobs and Skills report, which focused on 11 priority emerging green economy sectors.

The GLA and its partners are looking to inform the development of the Low Carbon and Environmental Goods and Services Snapshot Update specification and would like to engage willing potential suppliers on a brief questionnaire ahead of the tendering process.

The work will be delivered from March 2025 - January 2027.
