The Council has a contract titled medical advisers for adoption and fostering panels.

The current contract will expire on 30/11/2024.

It is provided by Central London Community Healthcare NHS Trust (“CLCH”) who deliver the services under contract.

Medical Advisers are registered qualified doctors and consultant paediatricians, and the professional and specialist nature of the service means it needs to be outsourced as this expertise is not available within the Council.

It is a statutory requirement for local authorities to appoint Medical Advisers for the provision of health advice and guidance to Fostering and Adoption Panels. This is contained within several Acts pertinent to Children’s Services.
