II.1.4) Short description

The aim of this procurement is to put in place a contract for service provision to support individuals who require short-term, intensive assistance in regaining their independence following a health setback, although it is not limited to this group exclusively. However, the service is primarily intended for individuals whom the trusted assessor deems likely to experience reablement benefits. The Commissioners aim to collaborate with providers to create a service that yields reablement outcomes, resulting in demonstrable and measurable enhancements in individuals' independence and well-being.

This is a mini-competition under Lot 3 (Personal Care Services) of CP2374-2-23 Community Services Provider Directory. NOTE Only successful applications onto the Community Services Provider Directory will be considered for this opportunity and therefore will have their applications for this service; CP2507-24 Rapid Support reviewed.
