II.2.4) Description of the procurement

North Lanarkshire Council is embarking on an ambitious regeneration programme to transform communities across the authority. This includes the redevelopment of several multi-storey and low-rise residential blocks in key locations, such as Motherwell, Coatbridge, Airdrie, Kilsyth, Wishaw, and surrounding areas.

Demolition Framework

To support this significant regeneration initiative, North Lanarkshire Council is seeking to establish a framework agreement with experienced and qualified demolition contractors. This framework will enable efficient delivery of future demolition projects, fostering long-term partnerships between the Council and awarded contractors.

Expression of Interest

Interested contractors are invited to submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) to demonstrate their capabilities and suitability for inclusion in the framework.

Market Consultation

To refine the procurement process and ensure it meets the needs of both the Council and the supply chain, North Lanarkshire Council is conducting a market consultation. Interested parties are encouraged to complete a short survey to provide valuable feedback that will help shape the framework.
