Description

Natural Resources Wales (NRW) intends to establish an open DDaT Services Framework to support delivery of digital, data and technology outcomes. This open framework will provide a flexible, value-for-money route to procure a wide range of DDaT services and capabilities. It is expected to run for up to 8 years, with a total estimated value of around £60 million. A pre-market engagement (PME) notice will be published shortly with further details.
