Description

The Council is only looking to engage with current or future providers of Extra Care settings who are also able to offer extra care services within their settings.

The primary objective is to identify and engage with providers who currently operate Extra Care settings that include on-site care teams. We are particularly interested in understanding the availability, scope, and operational models of such services, as well as any barriers or opportunities that may influence future commissioning.

This engagement will help inform the Council's strategic planning and ensure that future services align with the needs of our local population. The Council does not currently have any plans to run a competitive procurement exercise for these services.

Engagement process description

understanding the availability, scope, and operational models of such services, as well as any barriers or opportunities that may influence future commissioning.

This engagement will help inform the Council's strategic planning and ensure that future services align with the needs of our local population. The Council does not currently have any plans to run a competitive procurement exercise for these services.

The Council has developed a market engagement questionnaire. The opportunity can be accessed through the Council's procurement portal <https://www.the-chest.org.uk> then click on 'Current opportunities' and search reference DN783571.

The closing date for responses to the questionnaire is Wednesday 13 August 2025 at 1pm.

Clarifications should be raised using the messaging section in the procurement portal.

The Council has no plans to initiate a competitive tendering process for these services.
