Description

To procure public transport bus tickets from bus operators to support home to school statutory transport.

The transport team would like to use Regulation 41 (PA2023) to award to the required bus operators - namely Stagecoach as no competition can exist due to technical considerations.

The annual value of this procurement is £156,000. The Total being £312,000

Bus tickets are exempt from VAT

This is to cover 25/26 and 26/7

To allow for the continued use of bus tickets as an option for providing statutory home to school transport services, in a compliant and suitable manner, and ensure there is a clear contract/agreement in place for such services.

Additionally allow the Authority to explore possible alternative solution in the medium to long term.

Options

The right to additional purchases while the contract is valid.

additional bus tickets could be purchased throughout the contract term due to increase demand or changes to bus routes that make it better value to offer bus tickets rather than private hire buses to students.

it is possible the value could exceed the stated value as this is an unknown as many of factors which will influence Home to school demand is outside the Authority's control.
