NOCP00531

Description

NOC has engaged Eriks Industrial Services Ltd for the replacement of a dockside seawater pump.

The sea water pump will operate in marine environments, requiring strict adherence to environmental, health, and safety regulations.

The Eriks has a proven track record of delivering compliant, high-performance pump systems that meet all relevant industry standards

Given the critical operation of the pump and the specialised expertise required for its replacement, engaging with this supplier is the most effective approach to ensure the project is completed efficiently, safely, and within regulatory compliance.
