Competitive flexible procedure description

The tender will be evaluated using a two stage evaluation, bidders must pass the procurement specific questionnaire, conditions of participation, a series of technical questions and a commercial response at stage one. Following evaluation of stage one, bidders will be down selected so that only the highest scoring 5 at stage one (subject to tied bids) are brought forward to stage 2. Stage two will include further technical questions, an interview and a further commercial response.

Justification for not publishing a preliminary market engagement notice

Engagement was carried out prior to the Procurement Act 2023 coming into force.
