Description

Insurance coverage and associated services (not broking services)

Derby City Council need to extend their combined liability insurance provision to align with other insurance policies. The other policies expire on the 31/03/2026 so are proposing to extend the existing combined liability contract until this date. There will be a competitive process during this period which will likely be run through the Council's Insurance Broker contract which is currently supplied by Arthur J Gallaghers. The Council will also post a UK1 - Pipeline Notice following the end of the mandatory standstill period which will notify the market of it's intentions to go to market in the near future.

Maven Public Sector is a trading arm of Aon UK Ltd. As per the regulations, you cannot have more than one entry under the same company registration number to represent alternative trading names.
