Description

Direct award for the purchase of scholar season tickets on transport provided directly by schools.

The following Leicestershire schools either provide their own home to school transport or have awarded home to school transport contracts to a number of bus operators for which the schools sell season tickets to local authorities for the provision of statutory home to school transport:

-Brookvale Groby Learning Trust

-Robert Smythe Academy

-Wreake Valley Academy/Bradgate Educational Partnership

Direct award as there is no other supplier who can provide the required season tickets, on the basis that the tickets can only be purchased from the schools directly.
